DECLARATIONS OF (DIRECT OR INDIRECT) PECUNIARY INTEREST - Nil

Mayor McCallion requested that staff formulate a list of projects that can be reviewed and chosen for application to the Federal Government infrastructure funding, such as City Core development. City Manager Janice Baker advised that staff will be reviewing the unfunded capital projects in the deputation by the Director of Finance listed on the agenda of this meeting, and that the project list can be made readily available.

Mayor McCallion spoke to allocation of the provincial infrastructure fund recently received, and opined that this funding should be applied with a balance between existing infrastructure needs and new projects.

DEPUTATIONS

A Alternative Capital Financing Scenarios

Roberto Rossini, Director of Finance gave a PowerPoint presentation regarding alternative capital financing scenarios, in response to enquiries of Budget Committee from its meetings earlier in the year 2008. Mr. Rossini advised that a budget can be achieved that will require an increase on the residential tax bill of less than one (1%) percent. Mr. Rossini explained that this is based on a scenario with assumptions that all funded and unfunded projects are included except the Bus Rapid Transit cost increase of $52.5 million, the Capital Revolving Fund will be spend down so there is no repayment in all scenarios, and an infrastructure levy of one (1%) percent each year annually for the next ten (10) years.

Mr. Rossini reviewed the unfunded capital projects identified in the 2009 to 2018 capital forecast, to various scenarios at different levels of infrastructure funding on the tax bill impact for both residential and commercial/industrial.

The impact of debt financing projects was reviewed, during which discussion addressed the cost of carrying a debt within the various scenarios, for impact on the municipal tax bill.

Mr. Rossini ended his deputation presenting conclusions that it is not sustainable to repay the Revolving Fund, take on external debt and do an annual infrastructure levy; that operating increases projected for the year 2009 will have less than one (1%) percent impact on the total tax bill which provides an opportunity to invest in capital; there is a need to take a critical look at projects to review budgets and asset management plans and determine appropriate timing; that average tax rate increases over ten (10) years can be fairly similar but implementing a higher infrastructure levy today would give more flexibility and funding in the future; and that there is a need for the Federal and Provincial governments to provide sustainable funding.

DEPUTATION A -Alternative Capital Financing Scenarios cont'd...

During the presentation, Mayor Hazel McCallion initiated discussion questioning the status of negotiations for hosting the Pan Am Games which is being discussed by the Chief Administrative Officers of the municipalities in the Regions of Peel and Halton that have interest in being involved with this project.

Councillor Pat Saito and Councillor Sue McFadden respectively, requested that staff provide them with information regarding the feasibility of constructing a grade separation for the railway crossing at Tenth Line near the new GO station, and deferral of the widening of that roadway to the year 2011 or later until the development of adjacent lands can assist with the funding that project. Commissioner of Transportation and Works Martin Powell advised this can be included in the review of the Development Charges study.

Councillor Carolyn Parrish referenced the need to address the issues about operation of the Sheridan branch library; and subsequently requested that the proposal to develop a pool facility for the Pan Am Games be reported to Council along with information regarding the ulterior issues and impacts on the community, such as housing and transportation of the attendees of those games. Mayor McCallion noted that the location for the Pan Am Games has yet to be determined and that provincial funding will be involved. As well, Mayor McCallion advised that all matters that need approval have to come to Council. City Manager Janice Baker advised that staff will be reporting the results of the current discussions, to Council in January 2009.

Mayor McCallion and Mrs. Baker discussed the need to know Council's position on the principle on taking on a new project. Further, discussion was held regarding the implementation of additional institutions for post secondary education being located in Mississauga, noting this idea came out of the Building a City for the 21st Century (BC21) discussions.

Councillor Sue McFadden requested that she be involved in future negotiations regarding the development of Ninth Line lands and the grade separation at Tenth Line. Mayor McCallion noted that the details will be reported to Council in January 2009.

City Manager Janice Baker advised that $160 million dollar increase previously mentioned is not now included in the current budget scenarios. Councillor Pat Saito requested that information be provided to residents with information about what the total dollar value of the respective operating and capital budgets will be for 2009, and the increases projected over the future years for infrastructure. Mr. Rossini advised that 1% percent equals $10.50 added to the total tax bill on the average valued home. Further, Mr. Rossini replied that projects can experience a forty to sixty percent increase in cost by being delayed for a length of time.

DEPUTATION A -Alternative Capital Financing Scenarios cont'd...

Councillor Carolyn Parrish opined that this is the reason that reduction of the operating budget was imperative, and advised that she will be taking a vigilant approach when discussing the Region of Peel budget. Also, Councillor Parrish questioned if the infrastructure levy could be split over two (2) years, noting the cuts applied to the 2009 budget will reflect on the next years. Further, Councillor Parrish advised that she intends to issue her newsletter with detailed information about budget issues. Further, Councillor Parrish opined that one-time funding should come from the provincial and federal governments.

Councillor Pat Mullin expressed concern regarding the above-average assessment values of certain homes in Ward 2, in relation to applying a percentage quotient for infrastructure funding to the assessed value of property, opining that this will result in an unequal charge to owners of homes with higher assessed value, rather than a set dollar value per residential property. Subsequently, Councillor Mullin expressed concern for not having information in prior years when zero percent increases to the tax levy was determined, and requested information on the impact of calculating the infrastructure levy against the assessed value of homes.

Mayor McCallion opined that the information provided in the subject presentation is excellent. Further, Mayor McCallion opined that due to the current status of the world economy, there is a need to continue providing public facilities and services for the residents, noting that libraries appear to be the preferred venue for many people.

Councillor Eve Adams expressed concern with adding a special levy on to the municipal tax bill during the current economic recession for the purpose of putting those funds to reserve for future use. Councillor Adams opined that there is a need to determine which infrastructure projects could be accelerated, with suggestion that this could provide benefit to local economy, and requested information on which projects could be moved forward. Mayor Hazel McCallion noted her request for a Corporate Report on which capital projects can be accelerated, to which Mrs. Baker responded that this will be reported in January 2009, noting that the tender process and design timing involved will determine which of those projects can be presented in future application(s) for infrastructure funding.

Councillor Frank Dale acknowledged the concern expressed by Councillor Pat Mullin and opined that there could be an equal percentage across the city, noting the potential impact of the infrastructure levy amount for homes that have been re-assessed at a value higher than the average. Mayor McCallion noted that the new assessments will be phased in. Mrs. Baker advised that staff can prepare information that shows the impact of the infrastructure levy in dollar amounts related to average assessed values in each of the City's Ward areas. Councillor Dale questioned the percentages each year to be phased in and confirmed with Mr. Rossini that taxation increase does not occur until after a certain level of assessment increase.

DEPUTATION A -Alternative Capital Financing Scenarios cont'd...

Further, Mrs. Baker noted that the Municipal Property Assessment Corporation (MPAC) puts a number of the percentage increase on the assessment notices, and that staff will confirm whether this is an aggregate increase or the rate of the increase phased in over four (4) years. Subsequently, Councillor Nando Iannicca moved receipt of the subject deputation for information. The motion was voted upon and carried.

Councillor Carolyn Parrish moved that the subject matter be considered and complimented staff on the increases being applied appropriately for the respective programs. Further, Councillor Parrish questioned the increase to golf fees being less than other programs. Commissioner of Community Services Paul Mitcham advised that the golf fees were raised by ten (10%) percent in previous years and therefore a lesser rate of increase is required this year, noting that the Mississauga golf fees appear to be at par with those charged by other golf courses.
